CHI CHACK

BRIDGING THE GAP BETWEEN OBJECTIVES AND SUCCESS

Past Performance Highlights

Program: Language and Culture Services

Client: US Army Forces Command Project Role: Prime

Scope: Awarded in 2020, Chi-Chack provides language and culture services to military intelligence linguists and other military personnel requiring language instruction. Services include program management, instruction, curriculum development, translation, interpretation, and technical support for training, both on site and virtually at 10+ locations throughout CONUS.

Program: Special Operations Forces Teletraining System

Client: US Special Operations Command Project Role: Major Sub

Scope: Training 1400+ Special Operations Forces students each year in foreign language proficiency and supporting as many as 130 concurrent classes daily, Chi-Chack has provided program management, one-on-one and small group instruction both online and in-person, as well as full-scope curriculum development since 2012. Managing instruction for the largest Special Operations online language program (SOFTS) and with a capability to instruct in more than 60 languages, Chi-Chack delivers mission relevant training for initial acquisition and sustainment.

Program: Curriculum Development Projects

Client: Various DOD and Government Agencies Project Role(s): Prime & Major Sub

Since 2008, Chi-Chack has delivered curriculum development services for regional education, culture, and language (LREC) using the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale in multiple high-demand languages including Spanish, French, Arabic, Ukrainian, Russian, and Chinese. Our developers use the standard Instructional Systems Design framework, PADDIE+M, to create curriculum and associated materials adaptable to both in-person and online formats. Our curriculum development is research-based and AI-supported.

Program: Transcription and Translation Services

Client: Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of the Inspector General (OIG) Project Role: Prime

Scope: Chi-Chack provides unclassified translation and verbatim transcription (unclassified and classified) services to the DOJ OIG. Unclassified translation and transcription work is generally performed remotely using DOJ computers. Classified work is performed on government site and may be at the Secret or Top-Secret level.

Program: Security Cooperation Exercise and Educational Seminar Support

Client: Institute for Security Governance Project Role: Prime; Sub

Scope: Since 2018, Chi-Chack has provided education and training activities including scenario design, staff training, and subject matter expertise to Department of Defense sponsored security cooperation exercises and seminars. Activities have taken place in CONUS and OCONUS locations, including Mongolia, Bangladesh, and India.

Program: Professional Partnership Program (P3) & P3 for Supervisors (P3S)

Client: Defense Threat Reduction Agency Project Role: Prime

Scope: Chi-Chack designed, executed, and monitored a leadership and professional development program focused on enhancing staff capabilities using assessment tools, mentor-mentee matching, seminars, and forums. Our team used a combination of in-person and virtual formats for instruction.
